EGYPT OF THE FUTURE.

BOYPT OF THE FUTURE.

Delarious are less dangerous to individuals than to political parties. The former can be interred in airfums or handed over to the case of expert inhuilings or necessitions relative, but parties, even in Egrpt, (where we are accured by "All Wetaer" that parties do not exist) can hardly be put under lock and key or cofofined in their dwellings pending medical evidence of their restoration to sanity. No delusion is, in any case, more harmful to the genus politician than hat which simulates the jorial and aninohe stage of drunkenness and leads the sufferer to repose the most inhibition of the second of the second for the second complete of the second control of the second cont on worthless securities. But when political-parties pin their faith on the benevolence or the heighbours of their country they rin the risk of involving not merely themselves but their fatherland in an utter and general dis-comfiture more sepscially when their country is temptingly rish and their fallow citizens are not hardened in the school of war or collision teric.

Another extinct wonder which Professor Osborn will take to America from Egypt is the meritherium, somewhat smaller than the last, which is undoubtedly an elephant, yet ith little resemblance to one, as it was appar-atly trunkless and had only small, toothlike usks. That it was an elephant at all is shows to the toeth, undoubtely martedonlike. This unimal is regarded as closely related to the uncestors of all elephants, if not the actual succestor. From this piglike meritherium surely prang the huge latter day elephant. A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors	*
give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness - a break down, as it were, of the vital forces that susfain the system.
No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same;
the man preminent being alcoplesaness, sense of prostration or wentiness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life.
Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all each cases is increased vitality-rispas-

A GREAT HEALTH TONIC.

Coleman's "Wincarais" is one of the best restoratives known to medical science. Hitherto its use has been principally directed to the recuperation of convalescents, but its beneficial effect is, now recognised to be quite as essential for those who are conparatively well as for those who are, or have been, fill. The strong tonic effect is particularly valuable to the men of business who experience a considerable amount of worty and anxiety. Doctors preserble "Wincarais" for women suffering from nervous exhaustion, and for young grifs anaenic, this especially appreciated by the medical profession for speedy blood enrichment, it never fails to increase the natural starping of the nervous system.
